Worth A Visit

PITTI _ ISLAND

the new theme of the Pitti Immagine summer fairs

The island's luxuriant vegetation becomes a raw material to be interwoven, to be experimented with and, at the same time, to help us rediscover the naturalness of fabrics. "PITTI _ ISLAND, the theme for summer 2022, will be an imaginary island connected with the whole world in a process of constant mutual exchange. A land of selected, sociable and open botany, at times amusing, reflective and absorbing, sensitive to ideas, a place for meeting each other, for spending time together before each one of us sets off again on our own journey", explains Agostino Poletto, General Manager of Pitti Immagine. "Here we find the perfect metaphor for our fairs and the objectives we want to achieve at each edition, selecting the very best in fashion creativity".

PITTI _ ISLAND is a concept presented in all the communication (adv, video, social) curated by the creative director Angelo Figus and by Narente, Lucio Aru and Franco Erre who have been entrusted with the whole visual part. A production that also heavily characterizes the layouts at the Fortezza da Basso, followed by architect Alessandro Moradei.

INTOTHEWILD

The new Spazio Ricerca

Main Pavilion, Lower Floor

We live in a wild era, Golden, yet wild. With all the creature comforts, but wild. An era of progress and performance, yet wild. In the romantic era, however, wild was a legend of that which is good, of man and his natural and innate integrity. In complete harmony with nature. It's only external forces that have driven man towards brutality. An interesting theme to explore, INTOTHEWILD, the title-theme of the next trends for fall/winter 2023-24 presented inside the Spazio Ricerca, as at every edition, by Angelo Figus and Nicola Miller.

Wild Life Wild Heat

Main Pavilion, Ground Floor

The work of Maurizio Vetrugno (Turin, 1957) starts with the selection of individual elements – objects, images, signs, artworks – that are celebrated for their beauty and then transforms them according to a contemporary aesthetic. The Wild Life Wild Heat project, created for Pitti Immagine Filati 91, evokes examples of social theater, particularly in its exhibition of masks: the presences in André Breton's work, a metamorphosis of materials and spirits; Andy Warhol's vibrant Factory and its legacy on the New York disco scene; Le Theatre de la Mode by Christian Bérard. Or La Mode au Congo by Man Ray, in which he adorned his mannequins du monde, such as Consuelo de Saint-Exupéry and Meret Oppenheim, with African headdresses and jewels to testify – if ever it were needed – the sophisticated taste of African art and the persistence of its influence on the controversial affirmation of international modernism. The Wild Life Wild Heat's works take a symmetrical but inverted direction, bringing known and lesser-known subjects into the ceremonial and ritual context of the Balinese theater. The masks on this social stage are famous pop icons or exemplar rebels, exceptional models, unheard prophets, early Dadaists, or characters of pure and simple vanity.

FEEL THE CONTEST becomes FEEL THE GREEN

Main Pavilion, Lower Floor, Cavedio

A special space at Pitti Filati is dedicated, as usual, to the collections of the five finalists of Feel the Contest, the Consorzio Promozione Filati project which, at this edition, will examine the topic of sustainability and become FEEL THE GREEN. The INDIGO EDEN project

A special capsule collection in the Fashion at Work section

People have lived on our planet for thousands of years without damaging it. It is from this respect for the environment and for future generations that Alessio Berto, proprietor of the pattern-making firm, The Tailor Pattern Support, has drawn inspiration for a project of intergenerational and inter-artistic exchange. Entitled Indigo Eden, this is a concrete, cutting edge capsule collection inspired by primitive cultures which are projected into the future, a better future, with greater care taken in the manufacturing processes and the recycling of materials for garments that last longer in time and space.

D-HOUSE BY DYLOAN
